Ministry Sunday Collection

Next Sunday, 19th May, for the first time we are holding a new collection which will be called the Ministry Sunday Collection. This new annual collection will replace the Share Collection and will be devoted to support the building up of new forms of lay ministry in our parishes. The work of spreading the Gospel of Jesus in our changing religious culture will require more lay men and women working in various ways alongside our priests at the heart of Parish communities.

The Ministry Sunday Collection is about ensuring that we will have the people we need - men and women who will be to the fore in making our parishes vibrant faith communities into the future. While many of those involved will be volunteers, we will have to equip and train leaders and provide facilities for formation. We want to work towards a situation where all parishes in this Archdiocese benefit from their gifts and expertise. The new collection is one-step in that process.

FOLLOW UP TO THE WEEK OF GUIDED PRAYER - WHAT’S NEXT?

The feedback from the Week of Guided Prayer was very positive, with a general consensus that it really helped those of us who participated to explore the scriptures and deepen our Christian faith. A Follow-Up Meeting was held in St Mary’s, on Saturday, April 13th. There is now a list of suggestions for possible next steps by which we hope to build up the praying community within our parish on the foundation that has already been laid. More information will follow soon.

The May Queen

She wears sunlight in her hair
And violets in her eyes
And her cheeks are the petals of a rose.
She bears Love on her arm
And lilies are her feet,
And they carry Life wherever she goes.
There are graces on her lips
And rainbows on her robes
And her wreath is the coronet of May.
She is Fairy Queen of earth-
The wand at her heart
Is a Bud from the Triune Bouquet.
She is Mother, Queen, and Maid,
And God is her Child,
And her Courts are the meadows where
They play
And her Courts
Forever and for aye.
She is Mary full of grace.
She is Queen of Eternal May.

A May for Mary, the month of the Primroses, the May Altar, and the May Procession. Mary was always the centre of this month.

This month of May, dedicated to Mary, is a fitting time to begin to recite the rosary daily.

A Family Prayer to Mary

O Mary, Queen of Peace, teach us to live together in harmony and treat each other with respect and dignity.
May our home be a model of peace for all who enter and may our family grow together in the love of your son,
Jesus
Amen.
