Thought for the day

How to be an evangeliser today? The question is not limited to so-called "professionals," but forms part of the role and identity of every believer. It is, of course, not easy. The "marks" of bearers of the Good News surely include the following. Firstly, an awareness of the hungers of the human heart, recognised or not. Secondly, in a metaphorical way, to travel light, with little attachment. Thirdly, to do so confidently but not overbearingly. Fourthly, to do so joyfully. Finally, in the time-honoured phrase, to have an account of hope you have in you (1 Pet 3:15), when the appropriate moment for words opens up.

Prayer

Help us, who have heard your Good News, to help others to be open to the Christ and his teaching, that people everywhere may know your salvation.

VOLUNTEERS REQUIRED

Volunteer Drivers: The Irish Cancer Society's Volunteer Driver Service is looking for volunteer drivers who will drive patients to and from their chemotherapy appointments. The service is free to the patient with all driver expenses are paid. We are currently looking for volunteers in the Dublin north and west areas to drive patients to and from their appointments in our partner Dublin hospitals. For more information or an application form please email Gail at gflinter@irishcancer.ie - call 01 2310 566 or visit: www.cancer.ie

Appreciation Letter

To: Fr. Bernard and the entire Parishioners of Enniskerry, Curtlestown, Kilmacanogue and Glencree:

I want to sincerely express my appreciation of the wonderful time I enjoyed while working with you in Enniskerry, Curtlestown, Kilmacanogue and Glencree. Thank you for all your gifts and support before my departure. May God bless and reward you all abundantly.

I miss you all and you shall all remain in my prayers. Whenever I am free, I will surely come over to see you all. Once again thank you all. Remain blessed in the Lord.

Yours truly,

Fr. Joseph Apust
