WELCOME TO THE MEMBERS OF OUR NEW PARISH PASTORAL COUNCIL WHO ARE BEING COMMISSIONED THIS SUNDAY!

10 members will be publicly commissioned in St Mary's Church, Enniskerry, today, November 17th, and will make a three year commitment to serve the parish, providing pastoral leadership to support the spiritual development of the parish.

All parishioners are invited to participate in this ceremony and are also asked to make a commitment to support the PPC through prayer, encouragement, and practical action during the coming months and years.

For those parishioners unable to attend the ceremony, please also make your own commitment to support your Parish Pastoral Council. Your engagement is essential for this work going forward!

"Thanks to those who organised the tea/coffee, as well as to those who donated baked goods!"

And thank God for blessing our parish in this way!

St. Mochonog's Kilmacanogue Cuppa Sundays
Our Cuppa Sundays are well underway and its great to see so many parishioners enjoying the opportunity to get together after Mass and have a chat over tea and cake.

If you would like to join, the team would love to have you on board. It is a commitment of ONE Sunday a month for approx. ONE hour after the 10am Mass .

For further details contact the Parish Office or sign up via the rota at the back of our church. Thanks to all our volunteers for their continued help with hospitality in St .Mochonog's. You are all brilliant .Any voluntary financial contributions donated during the coming month of November will go towards our local Senior Citizens Annual Christmas Party.
