The presentation looks to explore the impact that the Covid-19 pandemic has had on people's mental health to date, particularly in relation to stress and burnout. The presentation will then explore ways to increase motivation, which has a positive impact on mental health, through behavioural activation, goal-setting and self-compassion. There will also be a discussion of sleep difficulties, as this is something that has become a significant problem during the pandemic and the research shows that lack of sleep has a big impact on people's mental health and wellbeing.

Dr Amy Watchorn is a Senior Clinical Psychologist working in St John of God Hospital. She holds a Graduate Degree in Psychology from Trinity College Dublin, a Master's Degree in Clinical Neuroscience from University College London and a Doctorate in Clinical Psychology from University of Limerick. She has previously worked in the HSE and with the Talbot Group and has vast experience working with adults with various mental health difficulties. She has a background working with various groups including people with depression and anxiety. It is in the course of such work that Dr Watchorn has seen the impact of Covid-19 on people's mental health and in particular in relation to their levels of motivation at the moment.

Lent week 2: Meditation—Fr Bernard Kennedy

Genesis Ch 22- v1-2.9

Mark - Ch 9. V.2-10

'You are my beloved son, daughter'. Think about it. That is what God thinks of us. The gospel story of the transfiguration on Mt Tabor shows Jesus with Peter, James and John and Jesus in company of Moses, lawgiver and Elijah, the prophet. Jesus is the new lawgiver and new prophet. His law is in The Beatitudes which you will find in Matthew Gospel Ch 5. Mountains and gardens are special places of an encounter with beauty and silence and divine mystery. The bible has many stories of such encounter- Mt. Horeb, Mt. Sinai, garden of Eden, Garden of Gethsemane.

In the first reading we are shown Abraham about to sacrifice his son Isaac. Caravaggio represents this very well. Look at it on images and think.

The gospel tells us 'You are my beloved'.

And in the first reading 'do not harm the boy'. The beatitudes tells us ' Happy are the peace makers' those who love.

These words ' my son' are so important for a young man to hear from his father, or a 'daughter 'from her mother.

Can you use these words?

Our Churches are open for private prayer and private devotion. There is nothing to stop you calling into the church when you wish ( see website for opening times) and offer a prayer. Do that during different days of Lent- a five minute visit. We don't need to say many words when we go to visit the Lord, just sit in his presence.
