Meditation Fifth Sunday in Lent Fr Bernard Kennedy.

Week 5 of Lent- Meditation: Fr Bernard Kennedy.

Some time back Pope Francis remarked upon the sparsity of homilies on the Resurrection. When did we last hear such ourselves? At funerals the homily can be more about the deceased than about life after death. Funeral mass can be seen as a celebration of a life, rather than its truth of a commendation to eternal life. Resurrection can be seen to be a hopeful possibility rather than a necessary completion of our lives. In this week's Gospel of John Ch.3 22. V 20-30 Resurrection theme is introduced. The greater than, the next phase, mutation, are all known comparisons of our theme. Watch YouTube debates between philosophers Bertrand Russell and Frederick Copleston S.J: or between Richard Dawkins and Archbishop Rowan Williams, here you will find the finer points of this debate. Or Gerard Manley Hopkins, S.J.Poem called God's Grandeur. The themes are Resurrection.

Our Easter Egg, though made of chocolate symbolises a rebirth, a taste of eternity. Spring after winter, seeing things differently, starting again, hope springs eternal, forgiving and moving on, letting go, all hint at our theme. All scripture stories lead to Resurrection. Love is all that matters according to St John of the Cross. Richard Rohr reminds us that living is about loving. This is the seed of Glory sown in us which will flower when we see eternity. And we can add loving is about living. Love between two people is a signal of God's presence because he is Love. To quote Copleston above, we are contingent beings.

Statement from Archbishop Dermot Farrell—4th March 2021

The sacrament of Baptism must be celebrated only in exceptional circumstances, that is in danger of death.

Under current restrictions all religious services continue to take place online.

In the interest of health and safety priests and parishes ought not to succumb to requests to distribute Holy Communion before or after Mass, in or outside churches.

Drive-in Masses are not permitted as no gatherings of people outdoors or indoors are permitted.

Holy Communion can only be distributed in the church to mourners attending a Funeral Mass, to those celebrating the Sacrament of Marriage and to the essential ministers that make celebration of Mass online possible, (e.g., Minister of the Word, Sacristan).

Arrangements for the celebration of First Holy Communion and Confirmation should not be made until Government / HSE / diocesan guidelines indicate that it is safe to do so.

Churches remain open for private prayer only, liturgies and devotions (exposition of the blessed sacrament, rosary, stations of the cross) can take in closed churches, online only.
