Sacramental Preparation Update!

With the lifting of all restrictions we are delighted that we can finally have some in person contact for families that have registered for First Communion and Confirmation. An email will be sent in advance so keep an eye on your inbox please. Resources for Lent will also be mailed weekly to help you love life and live lent.

Let's pray there will be no further disruptions.

Dear All,

Archdiocese of Dublin

We have had a few enquiries about ongoing Covid restrictions in church. The virus is still circulating in the community and we advise caution and prudence over the coming weeks. Mask wearing is still in place. Sanitising stations should remain available.

Synod Newsletter Insert – Sunday 6th February 2022

In Luke 5:1-11, the Gospel writer creatively combines the preaching of Jesus, a miracle and a call story. Luke invites us to recognise our own attraction to Jesus and the Good News. In the context of the Synodal Pathways — certain expressions jump off the page: the word of God, put out into the deep, do not be afraid

We should not be afraid to put out into the deep, both personally and as a community of faith. We pray to the Holy Spirit, that the Christian community may be full of courage as it gathers together on the Synodal Pathway.

If you would like to learn more about the Synodal Pathway, you can view some resources such as videos, and Archbishop Farrell's homilies using the following link: <https://dublindiocese.ie/category/synodal-pathway/>

The diocese have also produced a book that provides an overview of the whole thinking behind the Synodal Pathway for anyone who would like that level of understanding. The book called 'Simply Synod' is available using the following link; <https://dublindiocese.ie/wp-content/uploads/2021/10/Simply-Synod-Updated.pdf>.

Dear Parents & Guardians, staff and all the candidates for the First Holy Communion this year. It is my sincere pleasure to welcome all of you to the celebration in preparation for the First Holy Communion of our dear children. Today is very important as those children prepare and get ready to make First Holy Communion for the first time. I believe that if they are properly prepared and catechized, it will offer them better understanding and appreciation of the Sacrament of the Eucharist and a closer relationship with God. I thank everyone of you for coming today and I wish all our boys and girls for the First Holy Communion well as they get ready to receive Christ for the first time in their lives.

Blessing of St. Blaise

Through the intercession of Saint Blaise, bishop and martyr, may God deliver you from every disease of the throat and from every other illness. In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

Amen
