Meet, Greet and Welcome!

We are starting a new two-step approach in preparation for the Sacrament of Baptism, which will begin in November. For families who wish to have their child baptised in the parish, Mass on the first Sunday of each month will be designated as a meet, greet and welcome time. There will be refreshments provided afterwards. This will provide an opportunity for all parishioners to chat with each other and welcome a new family into the faith community, We are looking for people to sign up to be part of this welcome team, No experience needed and it will be at the regular mass time. Contact 0868182241 or the parish office, Thank you!

Parish Facebook Page.

A new Facebook page has been set up for the parish of Enniskerry, incorporating all four churches. If you are a Facebook user you will find it under Enniskerry parish with a cover photo of trees and profile picture of a quote from Pope Francis. Please give it a like and feel free to post news from your community.

Updates

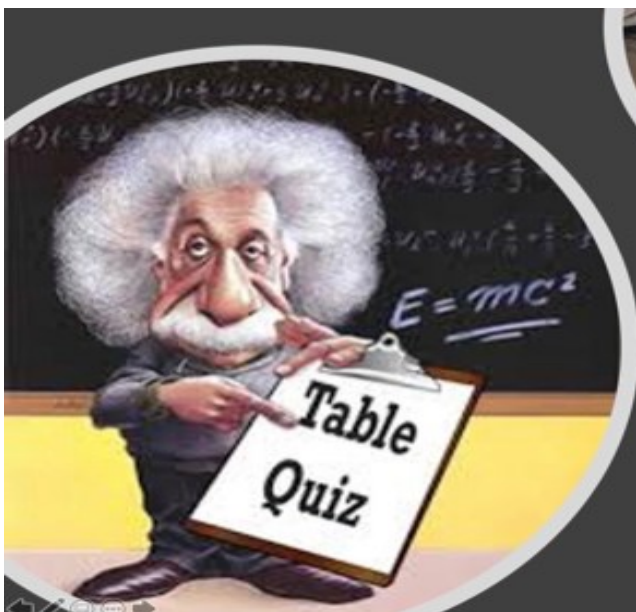

Keep an eye on our website. As soon as you open it you will see the latest in current news from the parish which will be updated every week.

A notice board in the porch is currently dedicated to Pope Francis teachings. Take a look!

NOTIFICATION OF FILMING ACTIVITY –

6th Sept. 2022

Dear Resident/Business owner,

I am contacting you on behalf of Sanctuary S1 Television Productions DAC, who are producing a new seven-part drama series entitled ‘Sanctuary’.

Sanctuary S1 Television Productions intends to film a number of scenes in Enniskerry Village on 19th – 23rd Sept. and 28th – 30th Sept. & the 3rd and 4th October (10 Days).

There will be no road closures however, To facilitate filming we will have members of An Garda Síochána operating a Stop/Go system on either Main Street or Church Hill depending on which way the camera is facing.

Following our meeting with local residents and business owners of Enniskerry, we have taken any concerns raised into account and will endeavour to keep any disruption to local residents and businesses to a minimum.

Sanctuary S1 Television Productions DAC are responsible for the safety of all persons on the set and have therefore adopted strict COVID protocols that exceed the government guidelines in relation to the workplace.

Please do not hesitate to contact me on the email below if you are interested in discussing this matter further. I am available to meet in person at any time to discuss the production and answer any questions you might have pertaining to our production.

Kind regards, Dougal Cousins

Diocesan Safeguarding Day, 2022

Letter from Archbishop Farrell

Sunday, 25 September, is Diocesan Safeguarding Sunday. This year the theme of the day is "Safeguarding – a Gospel Value". Children occupy a central role in the teachings of Jesus, who pointed to the child as the ultimate symbol of the Kingdom of God. 'Whoever does not receive the kingdom of God like a child shall not enter it' (Lk 18:17).

Safeguarding Sunday is now a regular part of the diocesan calendar. It falls each year on the fourth Sunday in September.

Over the past year or so, we have done a lot of talking and a lot of listening, both as part of the Synod and as part of the Building Hope project that I launched at the beginning of 2021. The talking and the listening in themselves bring us together and are part of the building up of the Kingdom of God.

One of the things talked about in the synod meetings in the parishes was the sorrow, guilt and helplessness experienced by older parishioners at the lack of involvement of their own children with the Church and the need to reach out to young adults and children. These young adults are often the parents who must decide whether to permit their children participate in the life of our parishes. Some young parents are involved with their local parishes and do permit their children to participate in Church activities. However, some of these young parents have told us that some of their peers express misgivings about this. These parents wonder if it is safe to allow their own children to become involved in Church activities. These are the concerns of loving, responsible parents who are determined to protect their children from abuse. We need to open up a dialogue with these parents. We need to listen to their concerns, acknowledge the failures of the past, and share with them all the many ways that we seek to ensure the safety of their children. We need to find ways to share the good news with them, the good news that God loves their children and that those who work in our parishes - clerics, religious and lay people - are determined to demonstrate God's love for these children by the actions we take to ensure their safety.

In the short film we made for this year's Safeguarding Sunday, Natalie Doherty, Faith Development Worker and member of the diocesan Safeguarding Committee refers to her work as centred "on engaging with families to support faith in the home", and of walking "the wonderful journey of celebrating the sacraments". We must be ever mindful of the generosity of parents who open their families to us, and the particular responsibility that brings with it.

We should remember too, our responsibility to the vulnerable members of our community. The Church must always be a place of safety for those for whom the world may not always feel secure and welcoming.

Finally, I ask you to remember in your prayers all those who have suffered abuse.

+ Dermot Farrell
