Down time Days”

For 2023 let's CONTEMPLATE in quiet spaces and emerge as better people.

Let's CREATE new, bold and radical ideas for serving each other.

Let's CELEBRATE the hope that comes when faith is fully active, fully alive.

Down time Days” will be a feature of parish life in 2023.

They will focus on providing quite contemplative spaces to recharge and renew our spirits. Watch this Space.

Former ICA Annual Party will take place Saturday next 7th January 2023 at 3pm in the Parochial Hall (opposite Kingfishers). All Enniskerry senior citizens are invited.

We look forward to seeing you all. Please let us know if you will be joining us in order that we can cater for the correct numbers.

21 December 2022

Dear Father,

The 56th World Day of Peace 2023 will be celebrated in the Diocese at a special Mass in St. Mary's Pro-Cathedral on Sunday, 1st January 2023 at 11.00 a.m.

On that day, I also invite you to celebrate Mass in your parish for the intention of world peace. You may wish to include special prayers for peace during other Masses and parish liturgies on 1st January, or during the week.

The Message of His Holiness, Pope Francis, for the 56th World Day of Peace, 1st January 2023, is "No one can be saved alone. Combatting Covid 19 together, embarking together on paths of peace."

The Message can be found on

<http://www.vatican.va/content/francescomobile/en/messages/peace/documents/20221208-messaggio-56giornatamondiale-pace2023.html>

May the celebration of the Feast of Christmas bring you peace and joy.

Yours sincerely,

+Dermot Farrell
Archbishop of Dublin
