The Value of Welcome

The gathering together at our weekly celebrations of the Eucharist is a microcosm of what is found in the wider community. All aspects of life are found there. Those who are grieving, those who are celebrating, those looking forward in expectation and those looking back wistfully.

We come to pray in thanksgiving. We come to pray for a need.

We come to find comfort in familiar ritual and sounds. We come out of habit and wish for greater faith. We come with deep conviction. We come out of a sense of duty. We probably have found ourselves being in church for all these reasons at one time or another.

Whatever the reason we need to feel welcome. Welcome say's "peace be with you" and I'm here if you need me.

To experience welcome is to experience God.

From September we will run a welcome ministry course for the parish.

It is a gentle scripture based four-week (one evening each week or weekend afternoon TBD) challenge to be more involved and committed to parish life.

Every church community needs growth to avoid closure. People who do not attend regularly, need to feel really welcome if we want them to keep coming back.

The coming new academic year can provide renewed enthusiasm and opportunities for growth. We need as many people signing up for this course as possible, please.
